HISTORY OF MAYES CEMETERY

John Mayes departed this life March 4, 1881 at the age of 89 years, 2 months, 15 days. He and his wife (who was Nancy H. Berry) were married 61 years and 2 months. She passed away Jan. 29, 1878. She was buried in a private burying ground on the old homestead. His first act after his wifes death was to surround his wifes grave with a substantial fence built with his own aged hands. He cut locust posts, charred the ends to make them lasting, and then set them in ground and nailed substantial boards to them. After he had done this, he remarked that he was now ready to die, and all he asked was to be buried by the side of his departed wife.

This was the start of Mayes Cemetery.

FICKAS CEMETERY

WARRENSBURG TOWNSHIP

SECTION 7, TOWNSHIP 45, RANGE 25

This cemetery is a part of a 1300 tract of land homesteaded by Adam Fickas about the year of 1825. Located about one and half quarters north of the original homestead. It is a deeded cemetery fenced with a four feet fence. The first burial not known and also date purchased probably in the 1830's. The cemetery is open to the public and is not supposed to be abandoned. Lack of funds causes it to be neglected. No records are known.

The cemetery is located on the farm now owned by H. S. Ronemous in Warrensburg Township on the N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ Section 7, Township 45, Range 25.

In the will of Adam Ficas filed Jan. 28, 1895, " I direct the tract of land on my farm dedicated as a graveyard to be an order and the gate road to run over my farm be kept open as a gate and read to same."

HOCKER CEMETERY

Hocker Cemetery is located in Grover Twonship, seven (7) miles north of Knob Noster. The farm is now owned by grand children of Larkin and Eliza Jane Hocker. It contains about an acre of land.

The first white person buried there was Harrison Hocker, May 1, 1840 and Thomas Huff was the second. A slave of the Hocker's was buried there in 1837.

This cemetery is well kept, having been incorporated in 1927 with an indowment fund of $1,000.

For information contact Mrs. J. R. Colbern, 209 Maguire st., Warrensburg, Missouri.
